

Down the Lazy River

(Aurora, Rising Sun, Vevay and Madison)

Day One

In Aurora, visit Hillforest Mansion, an 1855 river mansion built by industrialist Thomas Gaff whose shipping interests are reflected in the home's architecture.

A trolley tour of Rising Sun is the perfect way to discover history and shop for antiques. Rising Sun's 1845 courthouse is the oldest in continuous operation in Indiana.

Near Vevay luncheon at the Coyote Creek Family Farm, tour their Swiss-Sonian Museum, and meet the animals - alpacas, buffalo and miniature horses.

Overnight and evening entertainment available at one of the many river casinos in the area: Argosy Casino (Lawrenceburg), Grand Victoria Casino Resort (Rising Sun) and Belterra Casino Resort & Spa (Vevay).

Day Two

Madison, a scenic river town surrounded by bluffs, is home to Indiana's largest historic district. Enjoy Madison's scenic Riverfront Park, antique shops and a grand collection of period architecture. Several beautifully restored homes are open to the public, including the Lanier Mansion State Historic Site.

Stop at Madison Vineyards, one of three wineries in the area, for a taste of their fine estate wines.

Hike Clifty Falls State Park, offering scenic rocky gorges, waterfalls and more. After a long day overnight at the Inn, it has the comforts of home and more.
